Activity Description

Students use comparison shopping techniques and a decision-making model to decide on purchasing nutritious foods to sell at a class cultural bake sale with the intent to make a profit to support a local charity.

Learning Goals

I can make purchasing decisions by using comparison shopping techniques and evaluating my choices.

Materials

- Local Print Flyers
- Online Flyers
- Comparison Shopping Techniques \(PDF\)
- Let's Shop! Idea Web \(PDF\)
- Shopping Chart - Let's Shop \(PDF\)

Key Concepts

- Being a savvy consumer
- Decision-making
- Making healthy choices

Prior Knowledge and Skills

- Calculating discounts and unit rates
- Idea of comparison shopping
- Using charts to compare and contrast ideas
- What makes an optimal food choice

Minds On

- Introduce the scenario: the class is planning a cultural bake sale to support a local grassroots charity and must choose four food items to sell.
- In groups, have students use an Idea Web (refer to Materials) to reflect on their possible choices that would attract students to purchase their food items so they can make a profit to donate.

Action

- Introduce Comparison Shopping Techniques (refer to Materials) which students will use as a reference. Explain the Shopping Chart (refer to Materials) and ensure flyers (print and online) are made available.

- Divide the class into small groups and set the budget for the cultural bake sale.
- Students use the flyers to complete their comparison Shopping Chart.

Consolidation

- Have each group choose a few foods to share with the class. Students address price, benefits and factors that influenced their decisions. Class chooses the top four foods.
- Have the class create a “Smart-shopper Strategies” chart to demonstrate the need to plan, budget, use comparison shopping techniques and understand needs and wants as consumers.

Debrief

- Which food(s) would you purchase? Explain your reasoning.
- How do comparison shopping techniques influence purchasing decisions?
- Reflect on the idea of organizing cultural bake sales with a focus on generating a profit for donation.
How do you feel about this?
